

IF YOU WANT ANYTHING you will probably find it among the 5,054 " Wants" in last Sunday's WORLD.

643,617 "WANT" Advis. Pub. ber 30, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1888.

5 o'clock

NO PROOF OF GUILT

Evidence Showing Vincenzo Quartararo to Be Innocent.

He Will Be Taken to Court on a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

It Was Granted on the Evidence Got

by "The Evening World." Evidence gathered by THE EVENING WORLD shows conclusively that there is nothing so far to prove that Vincenzo Quartararo is in any way connected with the murder of Antonio Flaccomio, who was knifed in the heart in front of Cooper Union. There were three disinterested eye-witnesses of the murder, whose names and evidence were in the possession of the police. Strangely enough they were not summoned to testify before Coroner Eidman's jury. It would seem that because a murder had been committed some one, guilty or innocent, must hang for it. These eye-witnesses say that there was but These eye-witnesses say that there was but one man with Flaccomio at the time he was stabbed and that there was no struggle.

Aita, Sabatino and Canizaro, who accuse the Quartararo brothers, say that there were five persons there and a big struggle.

Aita, Sabatino and Canizaro were themselves under arrest for the murder when they told their story.

Aita and Carlo Quartararo, whom these three worthies say struck the blow, are bitter enemies.

three worthies say struck the blow, are bitter enemies.

Aita, Sabatino and Canizaro occupied adjoining cells in the Tombs and had time to cook up a story to save their necks.

Careful investigation fixes the time of the murder at 8.39 or 8.40 o'clock on the night of Sunday, Oct. 14.

Vincenzo Quartararo and his wife left Mount Vernon that night in the 7.51 train, which reached the Grand Central Depot at 8.20. The best possible time from where the cars stopped at the station to the restaurant in St. Mark's place is twenty-one minutes, and it is a minute and one-half's walk from there to the scene of the murder.

This would bring Vincenzo Quartararo to the scene of the murder at 8.42½, at least two and a half minutes after the murder occurred and when Aita says he caught his hand holding a knife.

and when Aita says he caught his hand holding a knife.

Here is the story, substantially, as told by Sabatino, Aita and Canizaro while under arrest for the murder:

Carlo Quartararo struck the blow while Aita and Flaccomio stood at the northeast corner of Cooper Institute. Giuseppe Timeos, of Geneva; Gerlermio Tierzo and Giano Polacci were also of the party in La Trinacria, and the quarrel arose about permitting Polacci to join the game. He got up and left, but the dispute was continued by Flaccomio and the two Quartararos.

The party then left the place. In the hallway Flaccomio, who had obtained a knife—how Sabatino professes not to know—threatened to use it. Aita then led Flaccomio into the street and Sabatino accompanied them to the street and Sabatino accompanied them to Third avenue and Eighth street.

Third avenue and Eighth street.

Just then Vincenzo Quartararo came running up with a huge knife. Aita sprang in front of him with outstretched arms and kept him away from Flaccomio. Carlo Quartararo, however, who had secompanied Vincenzo, eluded Aita and, thrusting Sabatino aside, plunged the knife into Flaccomio's breast. The Quarteraro brothers fled and Sabatino and Aita returned to La Trinacria and told Canizaro and the other Italians of the crime. All then swore not to divulge it and separated.

rated. Here is an account of the murder by disin-

Here is an account of the murder by disinterested eye-witnesses:

William Garrity, of 314 Avenue A, said:

"Going through Eighth street I saw the brouble. There were only two men. I thought they were intoxicated. I noticed them sway to and fro for a moment. Then one man fell. The other walked quickly away. I rushed forward and picked the fallen man up. Then I found he was covered with blood and dying."

"What time was it?"

"Fifteen or twenty minutes before 9 velock, as near as I can recollect."

"How soon did a policeman appear?"

"About five minutes."

"Have you been summoned as a witness to testify in this case?"

"No, although at first the police told me I

"Have you been summoned as a witness to testify in this case?"

"No. although at first the police told me I would be wanted, the detectives have never questioned me, either."

Albert Weber, of 2 East Fifteanth street, says he was going down Third avenue, and was within a few feet of the men when the murder occurred.

"There were only two men and no scuffle, I am nestive," he said. "I thought they were intoxicated. Suddenly they clinched for an instant, and one of them fell. The other walked away. I went to lift the other man up, and then found blood trickling all over his clothes. He was dying or dead. Others came up, and I walked away."

"What time was it?"

"I couldn't say, but I walked directly to Atlantic Garden, Bowery, near Canal street, and it was barely five minutes after 9 o'clock when I got there," he concluded.

In regard to the time that the stabbing occurred, Policeman Diamond told an Even page Wonld reporter that it was 8.48 when he had finished sending out the ambulance call from the Ninth street "L." road station, and that it took about four minutes to walk there from the scene of the murder. The Bellevue Hospital ambulance call book records the receipt of the notice at 9.51. and the ambulance left the hospital at 9.54.

To prove that Vincenzo Quartararo did not leave Mount Vernon earlier thau 7.51 there was within a few feet of the men when the murder occurred.

"There were only two men and no scuffle, I am positive," he said. "I thought they were intoxicated. Suddenly they clinched for an instant, and one of them fell. The other walked away. I went to lift the other man up, and then found blood trickling all over his clothes. He was dying or dead. Others came up, and I walked away."

"What time was it?"

"I couldn't say, but I walked directly to Atlantic Garden, Bowery, near Canal street, and it was barely five minutes after 9 o'clock when I got there," he concluded.

In regard to the time that the stabbing occurred, Policeman Diamond told an Even New Wonld reporter that it was 8.48 when he had finished sending out the ambulance call from the Ninth street "L" road station, and that it took about four minutes to walk there from the scene of the murder. The Bellevue Hospital ambulance call book records the receipt of the notice at 9.51, and the ambulance left the hospital at 9.54.

To prove that Vincenzo Quartararo did not leave Mount Vernon earlier than 7.51 there are six witnesses. The Evening World reporter who went to Mount Vernon for this purpose has their statements. Their names were printed in The Evening World of yesterday.

One of these is Vincenzo's wife, a pretty

One of these is Vincenzo's wife, a pretty girl of eighteen years, whose marriage took place less than three weeks ago. This is her story:

"I was with my husband from last Saturday night a week ago until the following Monday morning. He never attempted to kill any one during that time. I can swear to that.

"We went to Mount Vernon and slept in Roe's Hotel on that Saturday night. We walked about the village Sunday or remained in his store.

"We left the store and went to the depot about 7.30 o'clock that Sunday evening and the ferry, and thence to our home in Hobo-ken."

"Did you stop at any place on the way?"

"No. sir: we went directly home. My husband was so good and kind to me that night that I cannot forget it. It is cruel to lock him up on a charge of which he is entirely innocent."

"Were you were in the restaurant La Tri

"Were you ever in the restaurant La Tri-

"Once. The day I was married my husband brought me there and we had a little wedding dinner. I was never in it since and I do not think he was. I can swear he was not anywhere near it a week ago Sunday night."

Lawyer Stillwell her found the Italian.

Lawyer Stillwell has found the Italian woman who saw Vincenzo getting on the train. Her name is Marie Trujello. She told the lawyer that she saw Vincenzo and his wife boarding the 7.51 P. M. train in Mount Vernon.

Wife boarding the 1.01 F.

She lives in Mount Vernon.

Upon the evidence obtained by The EvenING WORLD, Lawyers E. Stilwell and N.

A. Lawler this afternoon obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Barrett directing the Warden of the Tombs to produce Vincenzo Quartarare before him in Supreme Court, Chambers, at 10.30 A. M. tomorrow.

AFTER THE COLONIZERS.

Supt. Murray Will Make His First Presidential Election a Clean One.

Frequent conferences are held between Inspector Byrnes, District-Attorney Fellows and United States District-Attorney Walker in regard to a possible colonizing of illegal voters in lodging-houses, aqueduct shatts and elsewhere, and the Chief Inspector is pushing vigorous inquiry.

A corps of active detectives has been sent into suspected districts and gangs of men, Italians and negroes, arriving here from other States have detectives in their midst who will know everything that is being done, who is the paymaster and who is the power behind the throne.

It is semi-officially announced that the yarn about 150 negroes registering illegally at

It is semi-officially announced that the yarn about 150 negroes registering illegally at Washington Heights is a fake.

Inspectors Byrnes, Conlin and Steers have investigated it, and they unite in declaring that save in isolated cases the registration is not unusual, and the men have lived in this State over one year and are entitled to a vote. Supt. Murray says: "Should there be 1,000 colored votes registered, there would be cause for alarm; but 100 or 200 are only the natural growth of the Aqueduct construction."

It is in the Eighth, Fifth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Ninth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixth, Nineteenth and Twentieth precincts that lodeing-house and colored colonization are mostly to be fesred, and Inspector Byrnes's detectives, aided by the ward details, are keeping a sharp lookout.

In all the lodging-houses and cheap hotels detectives are registered, and they have a list tails, are keeping a sharp lookout.

In all the lodging-houses and cheap hotels detectives are registered, and they have a list of all bona-fide boarders.

Others registering at the polling-places will be watched, their antecedents investigated, and where the stightest suspicion exists warrants will be sworn out and arrests be made if an attempt is made to vote.

Capt. Cassidy said this morning that there would be no funny business in the Eighth District, over which Barney Rourke, Johnny O'Brien and Johnny Brodsky preside. His detectives are watching the registration from doubtful quarters, and should certain suspected colonizers attempt to vote, Capt. Cassidy will arrest them.

The registration on Friday and Saturday will be watched very closely. Illegal registration is feared on Saturday, and a very sharp watch will be kept.

Democrats are laughing at that political purist, Senator Matt Quay, and his big bluff of $25,000 reward for the conviction of illegal voters, because the first $2.000 will have to go to pay for the conviction of George Gordon, who confesses himself a Republican.

This will be the first Presidential election to take place under Supt. Murray's police administration, and the active head of the Deto take place under Supt. Murray's police ad to take place under Supt. Murray's police administration, and the active head of the Department is especially desirous that it shall go on record as a clean one for the city.

In addition to the local arrangements, all made plain to the captains at a meeting of those officers which was called at Headquarters this morning, the Superintendent has made alrangements for concerted action with the police of other cities from which colonization gangs might be expected.

BIG ELECTION FRAUDS.

Wholesale Falso Registration in Jersey City-Five Hundred Spurious Names. Chief Murphy and his detectives are giving very attention to extensive registry frauds which have been unearthed in all parts of the city. The new State law requiring a personal registry was carried out on the first of the two registry days last Tuesday, but 18,000 names were registered nevertheless.

Of these 500 have been pronounced fraudulent, and at least 300 will be proven so by the James Gurry, a steamship engineer of 457 Had son street, was charged to-day in Jefferson Market with assaulting John Murray, of 421 West Seven-teenth street. Gurry was discharged when he ex-plained that Murray had robbed him of his wife while he was absent on a trip.

took the 7.51 train on the New Haven Road ON DER AHE MAKES A ROW DOCKS

for New York,"
"What did you do after arriving at the Grand Central Depot?"
"My husband took me in the horse-cars to the ferry, and thence to our home in Hoboken."

CHARGES THAT MAY STOP THE WORLD'S CHARGES THAT MAY STOP THE WORLD'S CHARGES THAT MAY STOP THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES.

> mpires Kelly and Caffney Ready to Quit Unless the St. Louis President Denies or Retracts the Statements Made Yesterday at Pittsburg-President Day Says Frankly What tie Is Willing to Do.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24.—The report sent over the country from Pittaburg, to the effect that Chris Von der Ahe said that both Umpires Kelly and Gaffney had favored the Glants in all the first six games in the World's series, that Kelly had money on the New Yorks, and that it was to the interest of both the umpires for New York to win, has created quite a row already, and may lead to a discontinuance of the series.

Kelly says that unless Von der Ane retracts and makes an apology he will refuse to umpire further Gaffney says that under no consideration will he ontinue his part in the World series. Von der Abe said last night that he did not make the statement on his own authority, but merely as the statement on his own authority, but merely as a matter of hearsay.

President Day says that if Von der Ahe has questioned the honesty of the umpires, and refuses to retract, he will stand by Kelly and Gaffrey and, if necessary, return to New York with the series uncompleted; but if Von der Ahe either publicly denies having said such a thing or retracts the statement, if made, and the umpires are then unwilling to continue, Mr. Day is ready to make such arrangements as may lead to the completion of the games scheduled.

may lead to the completion of the games scheduled, Mr. Day has sent word to Von der Ahe, asking his immediate presence at the hotel and will request a conference of all parties concerned.
It is hoped that the matter may be settled, but Gaffney says that nothing Von der Ahe can say will aller his determination to quit. He has already sent in his resignation to Von der Ahe, and the latter has accepted it.
Kelly says that he is willing to accept an apology, retraction or denial, but if none of these is forthcoming he also will resign.

FORGERY ADMITTED BY THE "TIMES." An American Named Roberts Furnished Letters Which Were Not Gennine.

IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. Special Judicial Commission appointed to investigate the charges against Parnell and other Irish members of Parliament, drew a much smaller attendance of speciators than has heretofore been present.

The general dulness of the past two days' proceedings, the lack of any special novelty in the presentation of the Times's and the Government's case, and the entire absence thus far from the trial case, and the contract has been a supplied to the case.

presentation of the Times's and the Government's case, and the entire absence thus far from the trial of any sensational feature whatever have had their natural effect.

Sir Charles Russell began the proceedings this morning by demanding in behalf of his clients, the incriminated Irish members of Parliament, the production in the case of the box of documents, letters, &c.

Sir Charles said that an affidavit had been filed by the Times's solicitor, Mr. Soames, stating that the documents had been received from an American named Roberts, and that some of them had proved not to be genuine. These were withheld in the Times-O'Donnell suit.

This admission will have a direct bearing upon the Parnell-Egan forgeries.

The Attorney-General, Sir Richard Webster, refused the demand, and a long and at times somewhat bitter dispute arose between counsel over the matter.

A way was finally proposed for bridging over the difficulty by Sir Charles Russell, who suggested that the judges examine the documents before granting his demand.

The Attorney-General then resumed his opening.

granting his demand.

This suggestion was accepted by the prosecution. The Attorney-General then resumed his opening address, dealing with Mr. Parnell during the period of his imprisonment in Kilmahnam Jall.

Sir Richard went into the details of the Byrne story at great length and with evident relish.

The Irish members were amused and laughed at the absurd statements.

Something Sensational May Be Expected. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Oct. 24. - Patrick Egan said this morn ing that the Times case would be exploded when Parnell offers his indisputable evidence, and that

LINK IMPOSED UPON.

His Counsel Charges Apother Lawyer with

Beating the Prisoner Out of $350. David H. Link, who perjured himself in order to obtain an appointment on the police order to obtain an appointment on the police force, was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 this morning.

Ex-Judge Langbein, appearing for Link, said his client had been imposed upon by another lawyer named Hockstader, who took $350 from him and promised to get him an appointment. appointment.

Judge Gildersleeve directed the District-Attorney to have either criminal or civil charges made against Hochstader.

Guttenburg Entries for To-Marrow NORTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK RACE TRACK, Oct.

Electrician
Brier. 108 Nat Goodwin. 109 Octobres. 108 Count Luna. 109 Alveda. 109 Count Luna. 109 Alveda. 109 Harry Brown 109 March 10
Creenfield
Endford
Miller

while he was absent on a trip.

Seventeen Votes Lost to Somebody.

Seventeen homeless and disorderly male lodgers from the Eighth Ward filed into Essex Market this morning. Judge Duffy looked over the array of misery and sent the whole company to the pland for one month.

A Read Run for Te-Night.

The American Athletic Association's first annual road run and collistion was postponed from last night to to-pight, because of the rainy weather.

"She's Much Older Than Her Husband."

We heard a young girl make the above remark the other day about a lady with whom we are slightly acquainted. It was not true, yet the lady in question actually does look five years older than her husband, although she is really several years his junior. She is prematurely aged, and functional derangement is the cause. Dr. Pierck's Pavonite Prescriptions would cure her, and should be recommended to her, and to all others who are in the same condition. If the reader of this chances to be a similar sufferer, let her get the "Prescription." It will bring back her lost beauty, and, better still, it will remove all those distressing aymptoms which have made life a burdon to her so long. Money refunded if it doesn't give satisfaction. Bee guarantee printed on bottle wrapper. " She's Much Older Than Her Husband."

Our Interviewing Corps Operates Along the North River.

Hard - Handed 'Longshoremen Give the Boys Welcome.

Hotbed of Cleveland and Hill Enthusiasm.

The Grant Men Found Everywhere in Great

to the North River docks this morning. The phalanx of political quizzers started from THE EVENING WORLD office shortly after 8 A. M. As on previous occasions, strict military disof tairty energetic and intelligent young men eager for the fray and led by the captain and lieutenant formed in front of THE WORLD Building, it received a fine send-off from the crowd of citizens who had gathered in expectation of witnessing the opening of the day's campaign.

The corps started off at a lively pace through the muddy, sloppy streets, taking a short cut across City Hail Park to Chambers street, as the mos speedy route to the district to be covered.

It was just at the hour when the incoming trains of the Erie Railroad and its branches were emptying thousands of business men into the metropolis from the various ferries, and as the throngs pushed their way up EVENING WORLD'S brigade of interviewers, and stopped to gaze in admiration at the column as it passed down the crowded thoroughfare.

" Here's THE WORLD'S Interviewing Corpa!" ex claimed an old gentleman as he caught sight of the blue and gold badges of the reporters, and in an instant there was a halt in the stream of pedes-trians and travel was completely blockaded for

THE ATTACK ON THE ERIS YARDS.

On reaching the corner of West and Chambers streets the phalanx halled, and the attack upon the big Erie freight depot was hirriedly organized. Hundreds of workingmen are employed there, including clerks, freight-handlers, deckhands and truckmen. Without a moment's warning the brigade threw itself into the fight with a will, and the busy throng of workers was taken completely by surprise.

As the reporters circulated among the piles of boxes and barrels and kegs that littered up the huge wharf, all work ceased and the men gathered around to find out what this extraordinary occasion meant.

around to find out what this extraordinary occasion meant.

As soon as they heard the name of The Evening World they "caught on," and it was only a question of agility on the part of the quizzers as to how many interviews they could secure.

Individual members of the origade were soon lost among the big bales of merchandise, but after half an hour's canvassing they reassembled at a point agreed upon beforehand, and a similar attack was made upon the West Shore dock at the foot of Jay street.

THE WEST SHORE DOCK INVADED. THE WEST SHORE DOCK INVADED.

Here they were equally successful, the fame of the galiant corps of interviewers having preceded them, and no difficulty was experienced in obtaining a frank confession of political faith from the majority of the workmen approached.

From Jay street the line of inarch was taken up as far as Beach street, and at this point the phalianx scattered itself among the intricate windings and ins and outs of the Old Dominion and Pennsylvania Railroad docks.

Among the lofty piles of cotton bales and the mountains of other merchandise the active newsmountains of other merchandise the active news-gatherers found a rich harvest ready to be reaped. They did not hesitate to sail in and make the most of their opportunities, for at that hour every mo-

THE VICTIMS LIKED IT. THE VICTIMS LIKED IN.

THE slaughter of victims was great, but the victims seemed to like it aimost as much as if they were getting a day's pay in advance, and the meeting of an occasional ill-natured biuffer did not at all disturb the equanimity of THE EVENING WORLD'S phalanx.

This was the last skirmissing of the forenoon campaign, and as each member of the corps pulled himself out of the fray and reported at the Captain's headquarters he took a bee line for THE WORLD Building to make his report of the casualties of the day's fight.

The result of the canvass of the Eric, the Pennsylvania, the West Shore and the Old Dominion For Hill 216 For Hewitt...... 78 For Coogan.....

by free trade cry.

Edward B. Harris, 'longshoreman, Erie dock—Cieveland, Hill and Hewitt, Change from Biaine in '84. Tired of Blaine and Republicanism.

Geo. Wilson, laborer, 13 Pell st—Straight Dem. Geo. Wilson, laborer, 13 Pell st.—Straight Dem. Grant. Saumel Gaines, laborer, 262 Cherry st.—Straight Dem. Grant. Wm. Fountain, porter, 228 Sullivan st.—Straight Rep. PIRST VOTE FOR CLEVELAND.

PREST VOTE FOR CLEVELAND.

Michael Casey, truckman, 72 Beach st.—First Presidential vote in ten years. Cleveland, Hill and Grant.

M. Henry, bartender, 518 3d ave.—Voted for cleveland in '81, but will support Harrison this time on account of protection. Hill and Grant.

Jos. McCoy, Iceman, 452 lith ave.—Straight Dem.
Grant. Pat Hennessy, laborer, 185 Chambers st. —Straight Dem. Hewitt. MORE ERIE DOCK MEN.

MORE ERIR DOCK MEN.

F. A. Phinney, clork, lives in New Jersey—Votes straight Rep.

John Toomey, driver—Straight Dem. Grant for Mayor. Voted Hewitt in %6.

John King, 'longshoreman—Straight Dem. Voted Hewitt in %6. Grant for Mayor.

Patrick McKeever, driver—Voted Cleveland '84.

Hill in '85. Will vote Harrison and Miller on account of Protection seatiments and ballot reform. Coogan for Mayor.

Frank Wheeler, hackman, 26 Greenwich st.—

TRAGEDY IN A FARM-HOUSE.

JOHN WEISMAN FOUND WITH A BULLET THROUGH HIS HEART.

chusetts Farmer Who Obtained His Wife Through an Advertisement—The Affair Shrouded in Mystery—The Couple Were Apparently Living Happily Together.

INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 24.-On the floor in a quiet old farm-house in Shelburne, with a bullet through his heart and a pool of blood beside him, lies the body of John Weisman, a young man of twenty-night, awaiting the coming of Medical Examiner Canedy.

The story of this startling announcement is a romantic and still and a sad one, and the cause of the rash act is not yet known.

A bride of six months ago is prostrated and an investigation is necessary before the facts can be fully known. The farm-house in Shelburne, the scene of the tragedy, nesties cosily among the hills and it, apparently contented and harpy, dwelt John Weisman

This morning, about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Weisman came running to the house of the nearest neighbor, forty rods distant, breathless and almost speechless, and from her broken exclamations the Wells family learned that her husband was dead. Three men at once went to the house and found the body as stated above, with a pistol by its side. Life was extinct but the body was warm, showing that the act must have been committed early this morning.

For the past few years, until his marriage, Weisman had lived in the house alone. About four years ago the father Weisman returned to Germany, leaving the Shelburne farm, worth several thousand dollars, to two brothers, Andrew and John.

About two years ago Andrew died, and John tilled the farm alone. He was shrewd and saving, and almost penurious, but very susceptible to the charms of the fair sex. He paid attentions to numerous girls, but he was a little eccentric and none encouraged his ad-This morning, about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Weis

a little eccentric and none encouraged his ad a little eccentric and none encouraged his advances.

Tired of living alone, he inserted an advertisement in a Philadelphia paper for a wife, speaking plainly of himself and his possessions, dating his letter at what he romantically called Oak Ledge Farm.

He received numerous replies that he freely showed to his associates, and the boys had considerable sport at his expense. had considerable sport at his expense.

After an exchange of photographs and numerous letters young Weisman made a trip to Pennsylvania, and afterwards on a second trip he was married to a good-looking young girl, seemingly his superior socially in the walks of life.

walks of life.

It is said that her father was wealthy, and that the marriage was a genuine love match.

After a wedding journey the young couple settled down at their Shelburne home, and, although there were many smiles at the romantic love match, the bride was cordially received and made welcome in the social circles of Shelburne.

The traced is as yet unecountable.

The tragedy is as yet unaccountable

THE WRECK OF THE ATLAS. It Is a Menace to Navigation, but Will Be Raised as Soon as Practicable. The steamship Atlas, which was run into by the Central, of the Jersey Central Ferry Company yesterday afternoon, as first reported in The Evening World's Sporting Extra. lies about 200 yards from Barclay street, a menace to all craft navigating the North River, and in this morning's fog several boats narrowly escaped the wreck. A suit for damages will be commenced very shortly, the Atlas Company's agent said, against the ferry company.

Mr. Butler, representing the Superintendent of the Jersey Central line, said:

"We can't make a statement just yet, as we have not completed our we can't make a statement just yet, as we have not completed our investigation. Our inquiry will be a searching one, and all those in our employ who were on the ferry-boat at the time the collision occurred will be subjected to a rigid examination in order to determine where the fault hes."

fault hes."

The superintendent of the Merritt Wrecking Company said this morning that the vessel might be raised in two days and it might take two weeks. It would depend on the size of the hole in her and how much mud had flowed in.

Smash-Up on the Old Colony.

SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.!
BUSTON, Oct. 94.—Concerning the accident on he Old Colony, General Manager Kendrick states that the morning express from New Bedford was switched into a side track at Howland's station, on which a train was standing.

The engines were badly wrecked and two persons were slightly injured, but it is not known whether they were passengers or employees. The socident occurred at 7, 45 a. m., and was caused by the miscake of a bagg-agemaster. Further particulars are not obtainable.

The Closing Quetations.

anada Sonthern		sential to the proper performance of the duties of all American otticess. Very respectfully.
anadian Pacific	61 61	HENRY D. PURROY.
hesspeake & Ohio 20 903	90 203	HICHARD CROKER.
Dicago tias Trust 31% 28%		Commissioners New York Fire Department.
hie. Bur. & Quincy 110 110 110 1	1094, 10942	Mayor Hewitt came down to the Mayor's hic., St. Louis & Pitts, pfd. 37 37%	nes mig	office this forenoon and several persons were hicago & Northwest 1114 1115	1105 1116	maiting to an him installed on Comme
hie. Mii. & St. Paul		waiting to see him, including an Evenino
hie. Hock Island & Pac 1075 1075	10636 10636	Would reporter, who said :
	42% 4514	"THE EVENING WORLD would like to have hio, & Eastern III, ptd 97% 98	9717 98	your views on the letters of Messrs. Purroy
in Ind., St. L. & Chie 94% 94%	D412 D412	and Croker."
ol, a Hocking Valley 27% 27%	2754 2754
ciorato Coal & Iron 345 345	34 1/4 34 1/4	"I have nothing to say just now. I will onsolidated Gas 80% 81	80% 81	answer it in due course and in an official onsoidated Cas. 80% 81 etc. Lack & Western 140% 140% eisware & Hudson 118% 11% Tenn. Va. & Go. 1st prd. 82 82% Tenn. Va. & Ga. 2d pref. 26% 26%	1 195 1956	way," the Mayor replied.
Tenn. Va. & Georgia 10% 10%		Mayor Hewitt has received the indorse-
Tenn. Va. & Ga. 1st ptd. 82 823	10% 10% 82 8/h	mayor newitt has received the indorse.
Tenn. Va. & Ga. 2d pref. 26% 26%		ment of the American Know-Nothing party akeShore 107% 1035	1025 1025	His letter of acceptance will be looked for aka krin & wastern 175 175	174 174	with great interest by the foreign-born mcmave Brin & Western and Bible 5:50	59% 60%	bers of the County Democracy.
onisville & Nashvilla 6036 6036	5932 60)2	bers of the County Democracy.
ounvill, New Alb. & Chic 43% 43%	4334 4334
lemphis & Charleston 56 57	56 57	Leary May Get That $2,000.
liamouri Pacific		Chairman Bliss, of the Republican State Com-
issouri, Kansas & Tex 12 12	12 12
lurris & Essex	145 145	mittee, said to-day that Detective Cornelius Leary
insouri Kausse & Tex. 12 12 12 14 14 15 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16		will be paid the $2,000 reward offered by the Re-
. Y. & New England bulg bulk	49% 40%	publicans, if he establishes the fact that the arrest
V. Chie, 4 St. L. 2d pfd. 44 45	44 45	and conviction of Geo. Gordon, who was sen-
V. Lake Kris & Western, 29% 29%	28% 28%	tenced to Sing Sing for illegal registration, was
W Take Many & Would not gold gold gold		secured through his efforts.
	10 10	ancered intologic and choice.
Y., Susq. & Western pfd . 35% 35%	35% 35%
oriols & Western 18 18	16% 16%	Fair, Northerly Winds, Warmer To-Morrow.
orfolk & Western atd 525 4 5	60% 60%
ortusru Pacific	26% 26% 61% 61%	WASHINGTON, Oct. 34.
pro & Mississippi 234 8	6154 6154 201 2334	The state of the s
utario & Western 165 165	16% 16%	Weather indications:
or Railway & Navigation 94% 94%	94 94	For Eastern New York
regron (Tanacontinents) 30% 30%	3034 3012	-Local rains Wednes-
Table 71b
regon Short Lane. 41% 41%		day; fair Wednesday
The Lates Con Continues and Continues of the Continues of	863a 813a	Helpht and Thursday
biladelphia & Reading 53 53	51% 53 96 96
eoria, Decatur & Evans 26% 26% uiiman Palace Car Co 167 167	167 167	novincesterty winds
ichmond & Alleghany. 15% 16	15% 167	Wednesday, southwest-
Schmood & Alleghany, 15% 16 Schmood & West Point Ter., 28% 28%	2834 29%
ich. & West Point Ter, ufd 8434 865	8354 BV	erty Thursday; cooler
t. Paul & Omana 58% 38%	38 V 385 V	Wednesday, warmer
2 Paul & Omaha ufd 106 106	100 1 100 1	Thursday.
t. Paul & Duiuth 44% 45%	4412 4514	I mil and
t. P., Minn. 4 Manitoba 1029 103	1025 103
t. Louis & San Francisco, pfd 66% 67%	66% 67%	The Weather To-Day.
exas racific		Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer.
enn. Coal & iron	83 83% 24% 24%
pion Pacific 604 664	630 660	1848. 1887. 1898. 1897.
Valuab St. L. & Pacific 145 145	149 140	8 A. M 55 58 9 A. M 55 60 63 63
pion Pacific	28 28	Average for past twenty-rour nours, 54 4-9 degrees.

POOR CHRISTINE SEEWAGEN.

It Is Hoped That Her Betravers May Soot Be Brought to Justice.

Sipl, the husband of the woman who performed the operation on Christine Seewagen, from which she died yesterday, is at the Eighty-eighth street police station. Through Eighty-eighth street police station. Through him it is hoped the wife may be traced. Christine Seewagen, the girl victim, lay in a white coffin on the fourth floor of 1712 Second avenue, this morning, while the heartbroken father and mother were pictures of despair in the next room.

Mr. Seewagen said that Koenig and Mrs. Sipl fled as soon as the matter came out. Dr. Hosman, instead of apprising Capt. O'Connor at once, as soon as he learned of the operation and its fatal result, sent to the Coroner's office, and the first heard of the matter at the police station was from the reporter coming to get the news.

ONE KILLED AND FOUR HURT.

Eric Express Train Dashes Into Freight Near Ottsville.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] on the Erie, the Wells-Fargo fast express, while running at a high rate of speed dashed into a freight train on the Erie road, near Otisville, eight miles from this village, last night, making a bad wreck.

Conductor John Hawkins, of the freight train, had a foot cut off and one of his brakemen named McMullen was killed. The other brakemen were badly injured. Hawkins may

GEN. NEWTON IS ROILED.

He Takes Exception to His Arraignment by Gen. Newton takes exception to Sheriff Grant's arraignment of the Department of Public Works in his letter accepting the Tammany Hall nomination for Mayor, in the following letter: Nuch J. Grant. Sherif.

Sin: In your letter accepting the nomination for Mayor from Tammany Hall, you state, in regard to the Department of Public Works, that "contracts, it appears, have been awarded without public competition, through a systematic evasion of the law." I demand that you furnish the evidence upon which you base this statement. If you have the instincts of a gentleman you will meet the lastic.

My experience in public life far exceeds yours in length of years and of active service, and I will not allow myself to be made use of for the further-ance of your political ambition. Respectful-yours,

WHOLESALE DESERTION FROM THE C. D. Croker and Purroy Write to the Mayor-

Hewitt Indersed by Know-Nothings. THE EVENING WORLD of yesterday predicted a wholesale desertion from the County Democracy and a grand rally under the banner of Hugh J. Grant.

The announcement of the arrival of the vanguard of this deserting army is made to-

One hundred and seventeen men, under the leadership of Dr. Philip Donlin, of the Fifth District, refuse to swallow Hewitt, and a score of Fourth District County Democrats, led by Patrick H. Roche, announce their allegiance to Taumany. allegiance to Tammany.

Alderman John Murray, of the Nineteenth District, has refused to accept renomination at the hands of the County Democracy, as he does not care to longer train with that organization.

does not care to longer train with that organization.

These defections are but a drop in the bucket compared with the stampede which will be made from the County Democracy and Hewitt to Tammany Hall and Sheriff Grant the week preceding election, the friends of the Tammany candidates say.

Following is the refort courteous, and a little more, of Commissioners Purroy and Croker to Mayor Hewitt's letter on pernicious political activity:

Croker to Mayor Hewitt's letter on pernicious political activity:

Mon. & Param S. Hewitt, Mayor:

Dran Sus. The Fire Commissioners have directed the respectful acknowledgment of their receipt to day of your letter of Oct. 27, 1888, which has previously appeared in the newspapers of this city.

A thoreugh investigation of the complaint made by Mr. Thurber has been ordered to be made by the Chief of Department personally, and if it reveals any violation whatever of the important rule governing the action of the uniformed force, which, as you state, the Fire Commissioners promulgated some two months ago, or of any other cule, chargus will be at encelpraferred and proper action threses will be promptly taken.

As to your adverse criticisms in regard to the participation of Mr. Parroy and Mr. Croker as citizens in a nominating convention, the Fire Commissioners respectively and the conventional conventions, the Fire Commissioners respectively and the conventional conventions of the conscientional concurring your opinions, communicate further with you.

From the fact, however, that in October, 1886, at the house of Mr. Edward Cooper, you approvingly received from Mr. Purroy (then President) of the Board of Fire Commissioners) acting as thairman of a sub-committee, the nomination of the County Democracy Convention for the office which you now hold: that about the same time you thankfully accepted from Mr. Croker (then Fire Commissioners and since reappointed by you) and others the Fantanay nomination for the same soffice; that last Fall you yourself, while Mayor, performed such vigorous and effective work against the Chiticuse' nonvention, and other city departments—from all these facts, and other of now one considered that political activity was very essential to the proper performance of the duties of all American citizens. Very respectfulty.

Henker D. Purroy, Mr. Henker D. Purroy, Mr. Henker D. Purroy, Mr. Mayor be writt cause down to the Mayor be sential to the proper performance of the duties of all America

The Weather To-Day. 1866. 1887. 1896. 1897. 65 60 A. M. 55 60 12 M. 55 60 12 M. 55 60 A verage for past twenty-four notice, 56 4.9 degrees. Average for past twenty-four notice, 56 4.9 degrees. Average for past twenty-four notice, 56 4.9 degrees.

O'CLOCK

BEDELL'S GIGS AND SADDLES.

HE TELLS OF A SCORE OF VISITS TO EM-ERSON & GOSS'S PLACE.

Long Lesson in Policy Cambling in Re-corder Smyth's Court—The Forger Again Goes on the Stand and Tells How the $127,000 Was Wheedled Out of Him—

Let in Quietly by the Vestibule Door. The trial of Herman J. Emerson, the man to whom James E. Bedell, the mortgage forger, claims he lost $127,000 at policy. in which Emerson was a dealer, at 180 Broadway, was continued to-day before Records Smyth. Judge Martine occupied a seat beside Recorder Smyth and the court-room benches were filled, the audience being made up of the familiar habitues of the courts during ensational trials. Bedell resumed the story which he begun yesterday relating to his policy gambling. He was hollow-eyed and more careworn than he has been before since his arrest. "As Emerson explained the scheme to me."

said Bedell in a clear, though slightly plaintive voice, "these bets were on the order of the numbers drawn in a lottery. The numbers played depended on the drawing order. If the numbers that I had selected came out in the drawing I would make a hit. Thus if one of drawing I would make a hit. Thus if one of the numbers or two or three or four came out in order it was a hit, 'a 'saddle, 'a 'gig,' or 'four gigs and a horse.' That was as it was explained to me by Emerson and his partner, Philip Goss.

"How did you do to draw?"
"I marked the numbers on a paper and Emerson took it. I kept a copy till I learned whether I had drawn or not."
"Who paid money to you when you won?"

"Who paid money to you when you won?"
"Mr. Emerson and Mr. Goss have each paid money won to me."
The examination of Bedell was suspended The examination of Bedell was suspended to give him an opportunity to compute the amount of his gambling, and his brother. Charles G. L. Bedell, was called to the stand. He testified that he lived at Bedford, that he had known Herman J. Emerson about a year and had visited Emerson's office, 189 Broadway, several times with his brother.

''On April 21 last I visited Emerson and Goss with James E. Bedell at 180 Broadway. I then heard Mr. Emerson say to James: 'The böy has made a hit.' My brother replied; 'That's all right; pay the money to him,' and Emerson counted out $200 and paid it to me. There was frequently a man at Emerson & Goss's office who was called Corp.

''I was at this office fifteen or twenty times, and have frequently seen my brother with numbers on papers; hand the papers to Emerson or Goss; pay money to them and receive money from them. They copied the numbers and returned the copy to my brother. The papers were little narrow strips two by six inches. They lay on a table in the office."

''How did you enter?"

'There was a vestibule and there was a wire screen over an opening in a door here and Emerson or Goss would look out when we rapped, and then he would slip the belt and let us in."

Miss Addie Kilmarx was next called. She is a diffident young woman and testified that she lived at 180 Broadway, of which building

Miss Addie Kilmarx was next called. She is a diffident young woman and testifed that she lived at 180 Broadway, of which building her father is janutor; that Emerson & Gosshad offices there, and had had them fifteen years. years.
She swept the offices at 7 o'clock every evening and found bits of torn paper with written and printed matter on them.
Louis Kilmarx, the janitor of the building, testified that Emerson and Goss occupied the same office, No. 4, in the building, 180 Broadway.

way. William F. Howe began his cross-examinawilliam F. Howe began his cross-eramina-tion this afternoon.

"Did you know Rev, Dr. Huntington in 1875?" began the bluff counsellor.
"I did."
"Did you steal $1,000 of him?"
"I did," replied Bedell coolly and clearly, clutching his slender hands together. "But that was in 1870. I returned it to him after-wards."

that was in 1870. I returned it to him after-wards."

"What amount did you steal from your late employers in your first theft?"

"It was $30,000."

"Have you any objection to telling the jury how much in the aggregate you have stolen from your employers?"

"No, sir; with interest and all, the ag-gregate approximates $295,000."

Mr. Howe passed to the rear of the house, asking as he went, "Is your eyesight good? Can you see this person?"

A tall, rather handsome young woman in elegant attire of black silk and beads stood up.

"I see her. Her features look familiar," replied Bedell calmly.

Mr. Howe led the young woman forward, the observed of all observers, and saked: the observed of all observers, and saked;
"Do you know her?"
"No, sir. I have seen her at a house in Thirty-second street, but I do not know her."
The young woman smiled serenely and returned to her seat. Bedell could not say whether he ever took the young woman to Albany, registering at a hotel as man and wife. It might have occurred and been rorgotten by him.
"Were you married when you visited this house in Thirty-second street?"
"I was."

"I was."
"Did you not know this young woman as Bianche Stuart?"
I never knew her name or that of any one else there."

Bedeil could not recall that he had ever been in any disorderly houses in this city, but could not deny that he might have been. If he had, it was while over-stimulated.

The names of Hattie Avery, of 108 West Fifty-second street, and other women were mentioned, but Bedeil could not recognize of them.

Murderer Soper Pleads Insunity. Henry Soper, charged with slaying and muti-lating six-year-old Frank Williams, at Riversead in July, was placed on trial at Riverhead to-day. His counsel applied for a commission as to his sanity, and Jungo Barrett said the facts of the killing are so horrible that he would entertain the PRINTER PARTIES WORLD. PRINTER PARTIES BURGEOG caulkers at Neartowns, on the Monougahela River, atruck yesterday for an advance in wages from $2.75 to 85 a day.

Caulkers Strike for Higher Wages.

Que Way to Pay Election Bet Gold Core Tonacco and set a last.